Remarks:

An incomparable mode of private beach living awaits in this all-encompassing glorious Mediterranean Revival estate by the sea. This expansive property forms one of the largest remaining estates in Delray Beach, now totaling 2.767 acres, with 308 feet of frontage across from the Atlantic Ocean. Courchene Development Corporation, Dailey Janssen Architects and Marc-Michaels Interior Designs collaborated to create the sublime beauty that is this masterful estate. Great care was taken to integrate authentic Old World elements with contemporary luxuries throughout the sophisticated interior. This residence is exquisitely finished with antiques European oak, mahogany, Pecky cypress, limestone, coral, and Alhambra tile. The main house and guest apartment consist of more than 26,000 total sq ft
